It is stated that Austria and Spain have recalled their Ambassadors from the Nether-at Antwerp, and the works of the citadel were daily strengthened.

The question of Reform is making rapid head way through every part of England, Scot land and Ireland.

We can state on authority, says the Sun of the 7th, that the following appointments which appeared in the Times' this morning, are correct; the patents have been made out, and this morning forwarded from the Treasury: Sir James Kemp, Master-General, of the Ordnance. Irish, Lord Chancellor, Lord Plunkett; Chief Justice of Common Pleas, Mr. Doherty; Chief Baron, Mr. Joy; Attorner-General, Mr. Pennefather: Solicitor General, Mr. Crampton; King's sergeant, the well known Catholic barrister, Mr. O'Laughfrom Paris, who states that the commercial distress in that capital is to a very alarming extent. Failures of all descriptions daily take place; credit is entirely annihilated, and even owners of ships give a premium on the coin of the country. The King is exceedingly popular, and generally takes an airing, about two o'clock, in his carriage, in the attire of a citizen, without any excert, and is well received. The Press has a most exten-sive privilege. Placards are posted up in all parts of Paris, pro, and con, against the G-vernment. The people stop and read them: after which they depart lunghing. The No-tional Guards are organized daily. These description of warriers claim the defence of their country, should it be invaded by any foreign foe, and leave to troops of the line to combat out of the country. The lower class of the people are desirous for a war; but according to the well-informed in most of the high circles, it will be prevented by the exer-tions and interference of the united powers of France and England.
